

1. Nordic service designers gather in Copenhagen.
2. Lahti was the first city in Finland to hire a designer. Now its famous for the service level of its public transport.
3. Fiskars Village is an internationally famous hub for arts and crafts attracting thousands of tourists every year.
4. Lapland has branded itself as the center for arctic design turning wilderness, natural materials and harsh climate into competitive advantages for tourism and product development. They collaborate constantly across national borders along the Arctic Circle.
5. Information architects meet in the annual open data convention in Tallinn.
6. Icelandic furniture brand presents its new collection at the Nordic Design Weeks – this year organised in Stockholm.
7. 50 % of design in the region is services and experiences.
8. Yet another group of designers from Vaasa travel across the sea to Umeå to kick off a project.
9. Eastern Finland is the gateway for Russians into the Nordic design market.
10. A group of Nordic graphic designers are heading over to Shanghai with their portfolios. They will be greeted at the airport by the local design agent.
11. A team of designers from Iceland, Latvia and Norway are working on a case for the social services of Tromsø.
12. Riga is hosting this year's Design Round Table for the region's design professionals.
13. An online platform for design helps companies and municipalities find designers from their region in Savonia.
14. Fashion designer based in Reykjavik is packing yet another package of her products to be sent to a client in Brazil.
15. A Finnish interior architect is teaching an intensive, one-month course at the HDK in Gothenburg supported through the Nordic Design Residency Program.
16. Aalto University is running the annual Design Impact Camp for Nordic companies training them to buy design.
17. Designers are renewing the service concept of an elderly people's home in Oulu with the support of the Aging Design Program.
18. Finland's design agent from Germany is over in Helsinki building contacts to Finnish designers.
19. Today Kajaani elementary school's children focus on their design class on ceramics.
20. Fab Lab in Turku allows people to customize and print their own products with the help of professional designers.
21. Design-led thinking allowed a dry toilet manufacturer to open markets in India.